

(Letter to those who teach in synodical, non-degree programs)

It is our pleasure to invite you to the first-ever gathering of the Cluster Teacher Network, an event for those who teach the Bible in a variety of synodically-based programs throughout Regions 4, 5 and 6. We will gather with Biblical faculty from the three Covenant Cluster seminaries including Ann Fritchel (Wartburg Theological Seminary), David Rhoads, Ralph Klein and Ray Pickett (Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago) and Clayton Croy and Diane Hymans (Trinity Lutheran Seminary). Patricia O'Connell Killen (Pacific Lutheran University) will lead us in reviewing best educational practices and methods of learning assessment. We're inviting you, as part of this group, to spend five days learning with each other.

This gathering will be held July 12-16, 2009, at University of St. Mary of the Lake Conference Center, Mundelein, IL. The purposes of the gathering include:

1. To honor the diverse teaching ministries in the Covenant Cluster
2. To build relationships among the teachers
3. To deepen the quality of teaching and learning throughout the Covenant Cluster, particularly among those who are teaching Old Testament and New Testament, by sharing
  - a. Current research in Biblical scholarship
  - b. Best teaching practices
  - c. Opportunities for synodical and seminary teachers to learn and teach one another
4. To develop an ongoing network of trust between synodically-based and seminary-based teachers
5. To do all of this in the context of the Book of Faith Initiative

Together we'll investigate developments in Biblical scholarship, share teaching approaches, review course syllabi, and evaluate texts and other resources. We'll look at the teaching and learning taking place in the various syndically-based, non-degree programs. We'll worship, eat and socialize together. And we'll explore what kinds of ongoing partnership between seminary faculty and synodical teachers—what kind of Cluster Teacher Network—will be most helpful for the future. By the end of the event we'll determine ways to remain in ongoing, supportive relationship.

The cost of the consultation, which includes lodging and meals, is $275 (plus travel) for the first two teachers from each synod. Additional participants are welcome to attend at a cost of $325 per person (plus travel). Please complete the enclosed registration form and return it to Please make your check payable to Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago.

We hope you'll join us for this event. Our desire is that the quality of teaching and learning throughout the Covenant Cluster will be enhanced. Together we'll have an outstanding continuing education opportunity. Seminary faculty are eager to hear what your learners are wrestling with and what issues you are addressing in your programs. Courses and standards in your synodical programs can be more clearly defined. And our partnership in theological education will become even stronger.

If you have any questions about the event, please contact Richard Bruesehoff, ELCA Director for Lifelong Learning, by e-mail at richard.bruesehoff@elca.org or by phone at 800.638.3522, ext 2872.

Sincerely,

Cluster Teacher Network Planning Team
